About This Content

Fighting crime and saving lives. And... surviving ravenous hordes of bloodthirsty undead? The men and women of Horror City's Police and Fire Services sure do have their work cut out for them.

Made for use with the ever growing POP! art style, creator Vexed Enigma has put together a character pack featuring 8 brand new characters themed around Fire and Police services, each with an extra alternative color scheme for convenient variation. Featuring a variety of skin tones and body types, with full facesets, zombie versions and downed/dead poses, this character pack is perfect for spicing up your POP! Horror City creations!

Features:

- Made for use with POP! Resources and formatted for use in RPG Maker MV
 - 8 unique Police & Fire Service Characters with matching sprites and facesets, plus a color variant for each
 - 20 faceset sheets featuring full emotion sets for each character plus zombie facesets
 - Zombie and downed/dead versions of each character, with non-gory versions included for the squeamish
 - Brand new POP! sprite and faceset bases included featuring plus size and elderly characters
 - 8 new "Power Up" objects themed around Police & Fire services including Handcuffs, Guns, Fire Extinguishers and more!

or we're gonna get swarmed!"

Want to like this pack but as the other horror pack the sizes do not fit into MV, If we buy dlc for MV should work fine. Plus no battlers so seems like we have to make our own combat system to use these assests. Total waste of money can not reccomend.. For those who think there's battlers here, there are none for a good reason. It's supposed to be like one of those horror survival packs for horror survival games. But all in all, this is really good.
